Summary of cover and significant benefits and risks

The following is a summary only and does not form part of the terms of your insurance. We give examples of some of the significant benefits and risks but you need to read the Landlords Policy part of this document which sets out the terms and conditions of this insurance to make sure it matches your expectations.

What you are covered/not covered for

Policy 1 – Contents

This policy covers you for accidental loss or damage to your contents that occurs during the period of insurance.

This cover also includes special benefits up to specified limits, for example:

- loss or damage by an insured event to your contents while in the open air at your situation - up to $3000 (see Special Benefit 1 of Policy 1);
- removal and disposal of the residue of damaged contents – up to ten percent (10%) of the contents sum insured (see Special Benefit 2 of Policy 1);
- fusion damage to domestic electric motors - up to $2,000 (see Special Benefit 3 of Policy 1).

Some events we do not cover include:

- loss or damage to fixed floor coverings (other than carpets or carpet underlay), stoves, built-in air conditioners and heaters, hot water services and garbage disposal units;
- loss or damage to clothing, personal effects, jewellery, furs, gold plated or silver plated items, gold or silver items, uncut or unset gemstones;
- loss or damage to pictures, works of art or antiques (other than furniture) in excess of $5,000 any one item or in total more than twenty percent (20%) of the Sum Insured for Policy 1;
- loss or damage to video cameras, photographic equipment, stamps, coins, documents, manuscripts, cash or negotiables of any kind;

- accidental breakage of glass in windows, doors, stoves or ovens, toilet cisterns, pans, baths, sinks, and hand basins, TV sets, video, radio, computer or other electrical equipment, and items such as glassware, drinking glasses or ornaments.

Policy 2 – Building damage

This policy covers loss or damage to the walls, windows, doors, floors, ceilings or fixtures of your lot/unit caused by:

- vandalism or malicious acts; or
- theft (including damage caused by theft);
- your tenants or their invitees if such damage is not covered by any insurance Policy effected;
- the Body Corporate on the building containing your lot/unit

See Policy 2 for full details of cover, limits that apply and how we will settle your claim for these covers.

Policy 3 – Loss of rentable value

This policy covers loss of rentable value if your lot/unit cannot be occupied due to loss or damage:

- for which a claim is admitted under Policy 1 or Policy 2; or
- to the building containing your lot/unit if caused by an event covered the Body Corporate's building insurance Policy; or
- to property in the immediate vicinity if caused by an event covered under Policy 1, which prevents access to your lot/ unit.

We do not pay for loss of rentable value:

- following loss or damage which is not covered under Policy 1 or Policy 2;
- for any period beyond that reasonably necessary to repair/replace your contents or repair your lot/unit;
- for any period where your lot/unit has reasonable access and is fit to be occupied;
- if your tenant continues to pay rent during the time, your lot/unit is not fit to be occupied.

See Policy 3 for full details of cover, limits that apply and how we will settle your claim for these covers.

Other policies

We can also cover you against:

- tenants default in payment of rent following their departure without notice (see Policy 4);
- tenants default in payment of rent that requires a court or tribunal eviction order (see Policy 5);
- legal expenses for minimising claims under Policies 3, 4 and 5 (See Policy 6);
- legal liability for accidental death or bodily injury to other persons as well as accidental damage to other person's property. The event causing the liability must occur during the period of insurance (see Policy 7);
- cost of professional fees if you are audited by the Australian Tax Office or another government organisation (see Policy 8).

Other important information

In addition to the preceding covers, inclusions and exclusions there are other times when this insurance may or may not provide cover.

Please read the Landlords Policy part of this document, which sets out the inclusions and exclusions to make sure the cover we provide matches your expectations.

We may also refuse to pay or reduce the amount we pay under a claim if:

- you do not comply with the cover conditions (please read the Landlords Policy part of this document for details of the conditions to make sure you understand your obligations);
- you do not comply with the Duty of Disclosure (see Duty of disclosure notice below for details); or
- you make a fraudulent claim.

We may also cancel your Policy in certain situations permitted by law. For example, if you breach your duty of disclosure or a condition of the insurance.

Some important things to remember are:

Keep receipts – You should keep receipts, invoices or other evidence of ownership and value of all property that you insure because if you make a claim you may be asked to prove ownership and value in order for us to pay the claim.

Total loss – When your contents are a total loss and we have paid out the total sum insured, this insurance ceases. If you replace your contents, this requires a new insurance contract commencing at that time with an applicable premium.

Overdue Premium – You must pay your premium on time otherwise your insurance may not operate. If you have not paid by the due date or your payment is dishonoured we may cancel the Policy. CHU will do so by providing you with written notice.

Renewing your insurance – When renewing your insurance with us you must advise us of any changes to your claims or insurance history. CHU will notify you in writing of any effect a change may have on your insurance renewal.

Please read the Landlords Policy part of this document which sets out details of the conditions to make sure you understand your obligations, as these are only some examples.

Monetary limits on the cover

We can insure you up to the amount of the sum insured or other specified limits for your contents. These amounts are specified in the relevant clauses in the Landlords Policy part or on the Schedule.

Covers for building damage, loss of rentable value, loss of rent (departure by tenant), loss of rent (default by tenant), legal expenses, liability to others, and Government audit costs insure you up to a set limit of liability which is shown on the Schedule.

You need to make sure you are happy with the relevant sum(s) insured and limits. If you do not adequately insure yourself you may have to bear the uninsured proportion of any loss yourself.

You should also advise CHU of any changes in the details of the information you have given us, otherwise your insurance may not be sufficient.

Excesses may apply. See Payment of excesses section below.

Payment of excesses

The Excess is the amount you must contribute towards the cost of any claim you make.

If we agree to pay your claim, we will deduct the Excess from the amount of the claim we will pay to you.

The amount of Excess payable by you is shown in the Policy or on the Schedule.

GST information

GST

If you are a business you must tell us if you are registered, or are required to be registered, for GST. When you do this, we need you to give us:

- Your ABN
- The percentage of any input tax credit you will claim, or will be entitled to claim, on your premium.

When we pay a claim, your GST status will determine the amount we pay you. Your claim settlement amount will be adjusted to allow for any ITC entitlement.

Unless we say otherwise, all amounts in your Policy are inclusive of GST. There may be other taxation implications affecting you, depending upon your own circumstances. We recommend you seek professional advice.

Cost of your Policy

The amount that we charge you for this insurance when you first acquire your Policy and when you renew your Policy is called the premium. The premium is the total that we calculate when considering all of the factors which make up the risk, such as:

- a. the Sum(s) Insured;
- b. the address of your Situation;
- c. your insurance history;
- d. the security features at your Situation.

The total cost of your Policy is shown on the Schedule and is made up of your premium plus government taxes such as Stamp Duty, GST, any Fire Service Levy (where applicable).

Paying your premium

The options available for paying your premium include annual payment by:

- a. credit card
- b. BPAY
- c. EFT/direct deposit;

Other costs, fees and charges

Other costs, fees and charges which may be applicable to the purchase of your Policy include:

| Costs or fees | Details |
|--------------------|--|
| Administration Fee | An administration fee of $33 inclusive of GST is payable by you to cover CHU's administration cost of preparing and distributing your Policy. The administration fee is noted on the Schedule and is not refundable in the event of cancellation, unless the insurance contract is cancelled within the cooling-off period or is a full term cancellation. |
| Administration Fee | You may cancel your Policy at any time. If you choose to cancel your Policy we will retain a portion of the premium which relates to the period for which you have been insured. We will refund the residue for the unexpired period less any non-refundable government taxes or charges, provided that no event has occurred where liability arises under the Policy. |
| Commissions | SGL or CHU may receive a commission payment from us when your Policy is issued and renewed. If you cancel your Policy, this commission payment may be non-refundable. For details of the relevant commission paid, please refer to the Financial Services Guide (FSG) provided, or contact SGL or CHU directly. |

21 day cooling-off period

If you want to return your insurance after your decision to buy it, you may cancel it and receive a full refund. To do this we must receive your request either in writing or via email within twenty-one (21) days of you receiving the Schedule.

This cooling-off right does not apply if you have made or are entitled to make a claim. Even after the cooling-off period ends you still have cancellation rights. Please see General Conditions.

Cancellation

You may cancel the Policy at any time by notifying us in writing.

We may cancel the Policy where we are entitled to by law.

Further details about cancellation are shown in the General Conditions.

Making changes to the Policy

If you want to make any changes to the Policy please contact CHU. Any changes will only become effective if:

- a. we agree to make the changes;
- b. you pay us any additional premium required; and/or
- c. we confirm in writing that the change is effective.

Confirming transactions

You may contact CHU in either writing, email or by phone to confirm any transaction under your Policy if you do not already have the required Policy confirmation details.

The General Insurance Code of Practice

QBE is a signatory to the General Insurance Code of Practice. The aims of this Code are fully supported by CHU.

The Code aims to:

- a. commit us to high standards of service;

- e. promote continuous improvement of the general insurance industry through education and training.

You can obtain a copy of the Code from CHU or from www.codeofpractice.com.au

How to make a claim

Please contact CHU in your state or territory to make a claim. They also have an After Hours Emergency Claims Hotline that you can contact on 1800 022 444.

You should advise CHU as soon as possible of an incident which could lead to a claim.

Having the required documentation and possibly photographs of the items will assist in having your claim assessed and settled.

When you make a claim you must:

- a. provide details of the incident and when requested complete the claim form we send you;
- b. allow us to inspect any damaged property and take possession of any damaged item(s);
- c. take all reasonable steps to reduce the damage or loss and prevent further loss or damage;
- d. inform the police immediately following theft, vandalism, malicious damage or misappropriation of money or property;
- e. not dispose of any damaged items without first seeking our approval; and
- f. not get repairs done, except for essential temporary repairs, until we give you authority and we reserve the right to choose the repairer or supplier.

These are only some of the things that you must do if making a claim. Please refer to the Claims Conditions section, which sets out claims information and what you must do if making a claim.

Resolving Complaints and Disputes

At QBE and CHU, we are committed to providing You with quality products and delivering the highest level of service. QBE and CHU also do everything we can to safeguard Your privacy and the confidentiality of Your personal information.

Something not right?

QBE and CHU know sometimes there might be something You are not totally happy about, whether it be about our staff, representatives, products, services or how we've handled Your personal information.

Step 1 – Talk to CHU

If Your complaint relates to a claims decision or CHU service provider, please initially contact the CHU Claims Handler who is handling the Claim. If Your complaint relates to an underwriting decision (or anything else), please contact the CHU representative who originally assisted You. When You make Your complaint please provide as much information as possible. CHU are ready to help You resolve your issue, aiming to resolve all complaints within fifteen (15) business days.

Step 2 – Escalate Your complaint

If CHU haven't responded to Your complaint within fifteen (15) days, or if You're not happy with how CHU tried to resolve it, You can ask for Your complaint to be escalated for an Internal Dispute Resolution (IDR) review by a Dispute Resolution Specialist. The Dispute Resolution Specialist will provide CHU's final decision within fifteen (15) business days of Your complaint being escalated, unless You have agreed to CHU's request to be given more time.

Step 3 – Still not resolved?

If You're not happy with the final decision, or if CHU have taken more than forty-five (45) days to respond to You from the date You first made Your complaint, You can contact the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA). AFCA is an ASIC approved external dispute resolution body.

AFCA resolves insurance disputes between consumers and insurers, at no cost to You. CHU is bound by AFCA decisions - but You're not. You can contact AFCA directly and they'll advise You if Your dispute falls within their Rules.

Disputes not covered by the AFCA Rules

If Your dispute doesn't fall within the AFCA Rules, or You are not satisfied with CHU's decision then You may wish to seek independent legal advice.

Privacy complaints

If You are not satisfied with CHU's final decision and it relates to Your privacy or how CHU has handled Your personal information, You can contact the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner (OAIC).

Landlord's Policy Wording

It is very important that You read this Policy carefully and make sure You are satisfied with this insurance.

What makes up this Policy?

This Policy and the Schedule must be read together as they form Your insurance contract.

Important: Sometimes We need to change the wording of Your Policy because the insurance varies depending on a number of factors. We do this by adding what is called an Endorsement.

This Policy sets out what You are insured for and those circumstances where You will not be insured.

Some words and expressions have been given a specific meaning in this Policy and You will find their meaning under Definitions herein. These specific meanings only apply to these words when they begin with a capital letter.

Payment of premium

Provided We receive the premium, we will insure You as set out in this Policy and the Schedule in respect of an insured Event occurring during the Period of Insurance.

You must disclose all previous claims

You are asked at the time You take out this insurance to give Us full and correct details concerning any:

- renewal or insurance policy declined, cancelled or refused, or where any excess was imposed;
- claim refused by an insurer;
- claim made;
- criminal conviction or finding of guilt for an offence;

in relation to You because any of these may affect the premium and extent of insurance.

For example We may be entitled to:

- charge You an additional premium;
- impose (back dated) restrictions declining Your insurance back to when this information should have been advised to Us;
- decline to insure You;
- refuse a claim.

When renewing Your Policy with Us You must also advise Us of any changes to Your claims, insurance or criminal history. We will notify You in writing of the effect a change may have on Your renewal.

General definitions – the meaning of some words

The words listed below have been given a specific meaning in this Policy and these specific meanings apply when the words begin with a capital letter.

There are other definitions which are specific to Policy 7 and these appear in the appropriate Policy section.

Act of Terrorism

means any act, or preparation in respect of action, or threat of action designed to influence the government de jure or de facto of any nation or any political division thereof, or in pursuit of political, religious, ideological or similar purposes to intimidate the public or a section of the public of any nation by any person or group(s) of persons whether acting alone or on behalf of or in connection with any organisation(s) or government(s) de jure or de facto, and which:

- a. involves violence against one or more persons; or
- b. involves damage to property; or
- c. endangers life other than that of the person committing the action; or
- d. creates a risk to health or safety of the public or a section of the public; or
